Charming traditional townhouse in the heart of Oliva, perfectly positioned within walking distance of shops, cafés, restaurants and all local amenities.

This spacious home offers three generous double bedrooms and a modern bathroom with a large walk-in shower. The property features a bright and expansive living-dining room, complemented by a second living room/garden room that provides flexible space for relaxing, working from home or entertaining.

The large, modern kitchen is well designed with ample storage and workspace, ideal for everyday living.

Outside, the property truly shines. A beautiful south-facing patio and terrace area create a private
